Center for the Study of Genocide and Justice

Center for the Study of Genocide and Justice (CSGJ) of the Liberation War Museum (LWM) invites application from interested candidates to participate in the 6th Winter School, an eight day-long programme, to be held from 17-24 January 2020 at the Sheikh Hasina National Youth Development Center, Savar on the theme "Dealing with the Past and Confronting Genocide through Peace-Education & Justice". The mentors will be eminent scholars and activists from both home and abroad. The application form is available at LWM website (www.liberationwarmuseumbd.org). The deadline for submitting the application is 15 December 2019 to the LWM office in between 10.00 am to 05.00 pm (except Sunday). The completed application form can also be sent to: csgj.bangladesh@gmail.com.

The interested participants should be either (a) final year Honors or Masters student of any recognised University from Law, Sociology, History, Peace and Conflict Studies, International Relations, Criminology, Liberal Arts, Journalism or any other relevant discipline; or (b) Cultural Activists, Young Researchers and/or (C) Professionals from home/abroad.

The short listed candidates may be interviewed before final selection. The list of successful candidates will be made available by 23 December 2019.

The course fee for national participants is BDT 5000 and for international participants is $ 150. The fee covers the cost of course materials, accommodation, meal and field trip during the programme.

The Winter School is a residential programme and the selected participants shall have to stay at the dormitory for the period of the programme.
